SENIOR WILLS

I, CHERI ARBUCKLE, do hereby will and bequeath to Violet my height and to Ronnie all my good times at BPHS.

I, DIANE BIGGS, do hereby will and bequeath to Linda Chandler my lifelong membership in the big AA.

I, TRUDY BOWERS, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times to all my hardcore partners: Cheryl, Linda, Ronnie, Anita and Head. May they enjoy their remaining years at BPHS. To the upcoming Seniors, Best of Luck!

I, GARY BORIERO, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to drive to Brad Houghton, and all my good times as a Senior to the upcoming Senior Class.

I, CATHY CHIRRICK, do hereby will and bequeath all the happiness of my high school years to Darrin & Devin Chirrick; and to the upcoming varsity cheerleaders, all my good times cheering—good luck and have fun. And to Greg Llamas, my ability to sing "Oh Donna!"

I, MARTY FORTNEY, of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my football helmet to Jeff May so he can keep it down where it belongs. And more space in the locker room to Cory.

I, DANA GERARD, do hereby will and bequeath to Linda Chandler all my fun that I had as a Senior. Best of luck always.

I, SCOTT HOUGHTON, do hereby will and bequeath my trusty good-luck locker to Karen Miners.

I, JUDY LLAMAS, do hereby will and bequeath to Jimbo Gramcko all my bestest friendship; to my little sweetie Dwayne, happiness in high school; and to Gregory, my ability to sneak in the house late; and to the JV cheerleaders, all my natural talent. Barbra and Donna: eat your hearts out!

I, BARBARA MAJORS, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at BPHS. To the upcoming Seniors, best of luck with your notes in the office. To Linda Chandler, the ability to raise HELL!

I, DOMINIC MARZANO, do hereby will and bequeath to John Kelley the ability to make it to school and football practice in the same day, and my ability to wear a football helmet without a rag on my head.

I, GAYLENE MOOSE, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play softball to Paula Ray; my locker to my little brother, if he comes back; and good luck to next year's ball team.

I, MIKE PAQUIN, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get stuck to Shawn, and my driving ability to Alan; he needs it.

I, EDWARD PARRA, do hereby will and bequeath all my crazy, radical and outrageous times at BPHS to my little brother Antonio; and to all the upcoming Seniors, the ability to raise HELL!

I, JOSH RHODES, do hereby will and bequeath my long hair to Allison Wilson, my gym locker to John Kelley, and my Atlas-type body to Jeff May.

I TRACY SCHRIEFER, do hereby will and bequeath to Annette Smith all my good times in school and at parties. To Debbie Smith, all the fun I had in cheerleading and my good sense of humor with the teachers. To Cory Scott, I would like to will all my love and all the great memories he gave me. Thanks, Cory.

I, RORY SCOTT, do hereby will and bequeath to Cory my ability to get in trouble with no one finding out.

I, JENETTE THOMAS, do hereby will and bequeath to my little sister Trinh all my good times in high school and in cheerleading; have fun. To the upcoming Seniors, have fun and enjoy your last year.

I, MARK WATTS, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at BPHS to my sister Missie, if she can handle them; my ability to get in classes to Maj, if he doesn't make it; and my ability to stay out of trouble to John Kelley.

I, DON WILLETT, do hereby will and bequeath my super times here at BPHS. Good luck to the upcoming Seniors.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Dear Barbara,

Sorry you couldn't make it to the reunion; we all missed you, but we know you couldn't miss the annual modeling show in Rome.

We really had a great time. Let me tell you, my house was a national disaster area. First of all, the hostess started handing out drinks, which Marty and Diane (Biggs) Fortney grabbed eagerly off the tray. They have four children and have been married for three years now.

Suddenly a crash sent me running to the patio where Josh Rhodes, now a world-renouned chef from Paris, was arguing with fashion designer Tracy Schriefer over Josh's French souffle, which Tracy rudely criticized and threw across the room. It landed right on my favorite Rembrandt recreation, painted by none other than Mark Watts. I had purchased it at the Olancha Gift & Gallery, now owned by Mike Joy.

By now the party was really on the move; screams and shouts were coming from every which way; but above all you could hear Judy, Cathy and Jennette arguing over who is going to supervise the annual Senior Citizens' Bazaar at the Sanatorium, which is now owned by Gaylene Moose. After gabbing with them for a while, I merged to the den to find Trudy and Dominic fighting over what program to watch, the Super Bowl or the Davis Cup. Trudy's being a professional tennis player and Dominic's being a football commentator made it very hard to make a decision.

Suddenly the electricity went out. Nobody was surprised to find out Mitch Colvin had been trying to fix a blown fuse and had accidently stuck a nail in the main socket and shorted out the whole electrical system.

Moments later there came a knock on the door and in walked Tony May, the head private investigator for the Cartago Police Department. After he determined the cause of the electrical failure, the lights were restored. Knowing that my house couldn't take much more abuse, I scurried upstairs, only to find my two tallest friends, Jim and Cheri (Arbuckle) Majors, playing one-on-one with my little boy's rubber ball in the bathroom and using the commode as the hoop.

Running to the kitchen cabinet to get some aspirin to cure my splitting headache, I ran into Ed Parra. He explained to me that he was the owner of Big Pine's only discoteque, the ChaCha Room. We were interrupted by the telephone, which Tilford, the head operator of Bell Telephone, ran to answer. Tilford explained that it was the next-door neighbor calling to inform me there was a helicopter in my front yard. Tilford and I ran out the front door, to find it was Mike Paquin and Rory Scott. Mike, a famous transcontinental pilot, had just come from Uganda, where he had picked up Rory from his latest Outward Bound mission.

Mike had crash-landed and broken a propeller, so I wasted no time and called Scott Houghton to fix it up. He came running out the front door with his trusty tool box. Then I picked up on some strange music coming from the alley in back of my house. It was Dana, Ron and Don singing "Milk Alley." The Willett brothers have been working for Dana at her dairy west of Big Pine.

After eight hours of constant catastrophe, the party finally broke up and everybody went his separate way. We had a terrific time; I wish you'd been there. See you and everybody else at our next reunion.

Love always,
Gary

P.S. Next time, it's at your house!

THE 1979 VARSITY VOLLEYBALL TEAM

The girls' volleyball season for 1979 ended with the team in 2nd place in the Hi-Lo League. This enabled the team to enter the CIF playoffs. The season was full of tears, laughter, hours of practice, teamwork, long trips, frustrations and, for sure, some good times.

Mrs. Foley

1979-80 has been a very interesting season. We had two squads of cheerleaders and it worked out very well. Our J.V. squad did a very good job; I am really proud of them. They accepted all the hard work that goes with being a good cheerleader.

Our Varsity squad is all seniors this year. Three of them, Judy, Cathy and Jennette, have been cheerleaders for three and four years. They have given an awful lot to Big Pine High and deserve a big THANKS from everyone. Tracy did a terrific job jumping in with no experience. I wish them all the best next year. JV's, I hope you all are back next yar.

Thanks to all of you for helping me and making my job a lot easier. I love you all.

This year's Student Council has sponsored many activities. They put on the Homecoming parade, dance and bonfire; also they are responsible for the concession stand, which operates during football and basketball games. The Student Council has tried to represent the needs of the students and make school a better place to attend.

The Council also sponsors the Sadie Hawkins Day activities at the end of the year. We thank them for their dedicated work toward making B.P.H.S. a livelier place.

The California Scholarship Federation (CSF) is an organization of California high school students honored because of their achievements and academic excellence. The requirements for acceptence into CSF are established by the University of California and the California Scholarship Federation. Those students who qualify for CSF represent the most academically talented and dedicated in their high school. These students should be recognized, respected, and honored among their fellow students, staff and community. It is an honor to be able to advise this caliber of student. Their dedication and enthusiasm is inspiring. I hope for the best for each and every one of these students and I believe they will receive each of the honors and privileges due to them.

DRAMA

Judy, Jim, Tracy, Cathy & Ed block a scene from Tear Along The Dotted Line, planned for spring production. It stars Jenny May, Gary Boriero, Judy Llamas, Tracy Schriefer, Ed Parra, Cathy Chirrick, and Sandy Kemp.

In a scene from Career, Sam (Ed Parra) woos . . .

. . . and wins the love of Barbara (Judy Llamas.)

Queen Elizabeth (Tracy Schriefer) listens coldly as Mary Queen of Scots (Cathy Chirrick) pleads for her life and liberty.

Married life (or rehearsing it) proves frustrating for Gary Boriero as he and Jenny May prepare a scene from The Fourposter.

Jane Eyre (Jennette Thomas) ponders the tragic mystery that torments Edmund Rochester, the man she loves.

BAND

Under the direction of Lon Doty, the Big Pine school band has been revitalized. They have had a busy year performing at football and basketball games, Christmas programs at Big Pine and Benton, and entertaining the Senior Citizens. The band also hosted the annual Inyo County Music Festival. The San Diego State University Band sponsored a band clinic in Bishop; the Big Pine band participated in the clinic and found it very helpful. The Friends of the Band contributed a lot this year in helping in the sales of baked goods, snack items and handicrafts. The money raised from these activities is being used to help pay for the trip to the Reno Jazz Festival.

WARRIOR

Standing: Frances Reilly, Marty Fortney, Dominic Marzano, Rory Scott, Gary Boriero, Alan Broch. Sitting: Judy Llamas, Trudy Bowers, Edward Parra, Barbara Majors, Dana Gerard. Advisor: Kathleen McCarty.

ZOTOS 7th dimension
WAVING SYSTEM

FOR FROSTED HAIR

Want your beautiful frosted, tipped, sunstreaked or "painted" color effect and a bouncy, easy-care hair style too? 'Til now dimensionally colored hair and a perm just didn't go together because a perm that would curl natural hair might overprocess the lightened strands.

New Zotos 7th Dimension Waving System has made perming available for your type hair. Gives it the body, curl and style support that newest hair fashions demand. Actually an exclusive lotion that we apply before perming works to equalize, condition and protect the more fragile lightened strands so that in combition with 7th Dimension Wave, hair looks lustrous, feels natural.

Call us today. Let us design a new perm style for you with Zotos 7th Dimension.
